Product Coloring / Finishing : Pro Wood Market & Pro Wood Construction Inc. can make no guarantees to the consistency of coloring in the materials used to make our products. Western Red Cedar has a color range varying from a light blonde to brownish/red , to a dark red. These color variations can and sometimes do appear within the same timber which will give your bracket / brace / corbel an appearance of light and dark streaks within the same piece. In orders with multiple pieces Pro Wood Market will make a reasonable attempt to use the closest matching timbers as possible, however we cannot guarantee an exact match. The timbers begin as a raw cut piece of lumber and we have no control over the coloring. Please keep this in mind when you order with planning your finishing materials, as the color variations will result in different amounts and or colors of stain needed to have the final piece matching. Pro Wood Market and Pro Wood Construction Inc. will not under any circumstances compensate you or your contractor financially for materials that do not match or take extra time and labor to make match. The finished product is the sole responsibility of the purchaser.

All custom orders are non-refundable after the order has been processed and paid for. Once the order has been placed to your specifications, Pro Wood Market will provide shop drawings to you via email for your review. You will need to accept or decline the drawings as shown in the email within 10 days, otherwise the order will be sent to production based on the original specifications that were confirmed when the order was placed. The products will then be manufactured to those specifications and shipped when completed.
